2. Physical Residence, Club Membership Standing & Age - Exhibitors must physically reside in Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Glades, Hendry or Lee County, must be currently enrolled in a school program, and must be a bona fide member in good standing of a chartered 4-H/FFA program active in the region representative of the Fair. After the 1st weigh-in, animals must reside in Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Glades, Hendry or Lee County. All four requirements must be met. Failure to comply will result in immediate disqualification. The Fair Board and Livestock Committee reserve the right to ask for proof of school records. Exhibitors in beef breeding, horse, swine and steer competition must be eight (8) years old as of September 1st of the current Fair season. Livestock entries for show and sale by clubs or groups will not be accepted.
3. Age Classes - Age determination for record book judging, showmanship and grooming awards shall be based on the exhibitor's age as of September 1 prior to the fair. Awards shall be divided into three classes: Junior: ages 8-10; intermediate: ages 11-13; Senior: ages 14-18 (High School Senior), as of September 1st of the current Fair season.
4. Management Rights - The management of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair reserves the right to amend, add to and interpret the following Rules and Regulations; and to arbitrarily settle and determine all questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Fair. The Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair and the Livestock Committee assumes no responsibility for the safety, loss, or well being of exhibits, however, every reasonable precaution will be observed.
5. Protests - Any and all protests must be made and submitted in writing, plainly stating the complaint and be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of $150.00 for each protest and delivered to Livestock Coordinator Scott Weber within 24 hours after the cause of protest. Should an exhibitor need to miss an obligatory deadline, they may petition the Livestock Committee, in writing, for a one (1) time exemption. Should the exception be granted, a fine of up to $250 may be imposed.

6. Property Responsibility - The owner or custodian of property of any kind brought to the Fairgrounds, either for exhibit or for other purposes, assumes as a condition of its admission to the grounds, all risks and/or responsibility for its loss, damage, or theft. The Fair, its officers and employees cannot and will not accept responsibility and liability for any damage or injury resulting from theft, fire, the elements, accidents or other conditions or causes; whether the exhibits, property of the exhibitor, vehicles on the grounds and articles left therein or any other property of any nature whatsoever. Each exhibitor must assume all liability in case of death or injury to his/her animal until the end of the fair, at which time market animals become the liability of the purchaser.
7. Mandatory Meetings, Attendance and Parent/Legal Guardian - A parent or legal guardian must accompany the exhibitor to all mandatory registrations, weigh-ins and meetings. At any official weigh-in, both parent/legal guardian and exhibitor must sign in. If the exhibitor is not accompanied by a parent/guardian, the exhibitor will not be allowed to show. Exhibitor, animal, & parent/guardian must be checked in by the designated time. If Exhibitor is accompanied by a 'designated legal guardian', a notarized document must be provided to the Livestock Committee at the designated weigh-in/check-in. A copy shall be retained for the Exhibitor's file. Should an exhibitor need to miss an obligatory deadline, they may petition the Livestock Committee, in writing, for a one (1) time exemption. Should the exception be granted, a fine of up to $250 may be imposed.
8. Prospect Show Requirements - All Exhibitors in the Beef and Steer Divisions are required to attend at least one prospect show and/or clinic by January 21, 2020. Visual sighting or an email of a picture of the exhibitor showing and/or a show bill will be required.
9. Ethics Training & Premise ID - All livestock exhibitors must have completed the Ethics Training to show an animal at the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair. When registering for the Fair, the Ethics and Premise ID numbers must be entered. Should the Exhibitor not have the information at the time of registration, enter 0's in the field. Exhibitors are responsible for logging back into their account and entering the information. First time exhibitors must have their Ethic's number and Premise ID number by December 1, 2019. Failure to comply will result in disqualification of animal registered.
10. Proof of Animal Ownership - Proof of Ownership must be submitted at the first official weigh in. Breeder and Seller's Name, Address, Phone Number, Animal Date of Birth, and the Date of Purchase must be included. Proof of Ownership will be retained and placed in the Exhibitor's file.
11. Current Health Certificate - Each animal (exception: market hogs) must have a current up to date health certificate from a veterinarian dated not more than 60 days prior to the Fair. Horses must have a Coggins certificate from a veterinarian dated not more than 10 days prior to the Fair. No health papers will be issued at the weigh in. All exhibitors are responsible for obtaining their own health papers. Unloading privileges will be refused to any stock not accompanied by official health certificates. Exhibitor is to provide an extra copy to be retained and placed in their file.

MARKET HOGS MUST COMPLY WITH FEDERAL REGULATION 9CFR.71.19. This regulation requires that all swine being shown at fairs or exhibitions (interstate commerce) must have official individual identification. Swine presented that do not meet the federal official individual identification requirements may not be allowed entrance into the fair.

12. Weigh-Ins, Check-Ins and Check-Outs - It is the SOLE responsibility of the Exhibitor and parent/guardian to unload and load their animal at any given weigh-in and/or check-in. Assistance will be provided, upon request ONLY. The Fair Association, Livestock Committee Members and other volunteers are not responsible for any injury to animal and/or any exhibitor and/or any parent/guardian when assistance has been requested and provided. All animals will be weighed on certified scales provided by the Livestock Committee only. Re-weigh, if deemed necessary by the scale master, will be done prior to animal leaving the scale chute. The scale will be set to zero (0) and the animal will be reweighed one time only. There are no substitutions allowed for animals after weigh-in/check-in. During weigh-ins only the Exhibitor and one parent will be allowed in the scale area along with Scale Master.

13. Competitions and Shows – All competitions and shows are subject to the General Rules. Additional rules for various competitions and shows are outlined in the respective division, however General Rules will not be repeated in the Show Rules. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to know and follow the rules. All exhibitors must pre-register for all competitions and shows – there will be no ‘walk up’ entries allowed. All exhibitors must be dressed in the appropriate show attire for all competitions and shows (see #24). If you sign up for Showmanship, check-in and, subsequently withdraw, you will be charged $20. These rules apply to the Small Animal Division.
14. Animal Screening - All animals used for exhibit or market will be screened with regard to health, manageability and quality. The Livestock Committee reserves the right to reject or require removal of any animal because of health, unmanageability or inferior quality. If a market animal has a hernia, sores, or lesions, it will be disqualified from entry to the Fair.
15. Property Subject to Control - All property entered at the fair for any purpose shall be subject to the control of the Livestock Committee. Any animal to be exhibited may be used for the 4-H and FFA judging competition. No animal will be used without proper notification to the owner.
16. Barn Rules – Barn Rules are posted in the respective barn. It is the responsibility of each Exhibitor to familiarize themselves with, and to follow the rules of their barn. Pertinent information such as Barn Chairperson’s contact information, exhibitor work days, feeding, washing, cleaning, release of animals, barn hours, etc. will be posted in the respective barn.
17. Tampering Prohibited - Tampering with any animal exhibit entered, such as filling with foreign substances, etc., is prohibited. The use of tranquilizers on show animals or possession of the same after arrival to the fair will be construed as a form of tampering. Tampering will result in immediate disqualification of the animal. No chemicals are to be administered within 30 days of show dates unless administered by a veterinarian and accompanied by a letter from him or her.
18. Duration of Animal Stay - Animals must remain at the fairgrounds until their designated release time. Release times are posted in the respective barns as part of the Barn Rules. Unauthorized removal of any animal or exhibit prior to the designated release time will cause forfeiture of all premiums won, all fees paid and eligibility of participation the following year. If, in such case, a veterinarian determines the need to have an animal removed, only then shall the animal be removed, as coordinated with the appropriate barn chairperson.
19. Pen and Stall Cleaning - Exhibitors are required to feed and clean the pens/stalls on a daily basis for each animal they bring to the Fair. Any animal exhibit found and determined not to be receiving proper care by the exhibitor (feed, water, clean pen/stall, etc.) will be cared for by show management. In this case, a notice of violation will be issued to the exhibitor. In addition, a fine may be imposed, including and up to an assessment of $50.00 per day. Fines will be deducted from the premium or sale money due the exhibitor. Should the situation not be corrected immediately, the exhibitor and animal shall be removed. All exhibitors will adhere to the barn rules which are posted in the respective barn. Failure to follow the rules will result in forfeiting the opportunity to participate the following year.
20. Feeding Times and Responsibilities - Feeding times in all barns/departments will be 6am - 9am and 4pm - 6pm. (feeding must be completed by 6pm as barns will be open to the public). Feeding times specified by Barn Rules will supersede the times stated herein. All Exhibitors must feed once a day Monday thru Friday and twice a day on Saturday and Sunday. Barn representatives will feed morning hours, Monday – Friday only. Exhibitors must sign in and out for each feeding. Any exception to this rule will be posted in the respective barn.
21. Grooming - Exhibitors are required to groom their own animal; however, exhibitors may enlist the “hands-on help” of other exhibitors. Professional groomers are not allowed in the make-up area. Shaving, dying or defacing animals in any way will result in disqualification of the exhibitor and the animal will be removed from the fair and be ineligible for sale.

22. Safe Handling and Control of Animals - All animals must be handled/managed safely by the Exhibitor. If you lose control of your animal three (3) times, it will be subject to removal from the Show and Fairgrounds at the discretion of the Livestock Committee and Fair Management. Bovine must be doubled tied with halter/chain and neck ropes at least ½” in diameter.
23. Exhibitor Work Days – Exhibitor Work Days will be addressed in the respective Barn Rules posted in the respective Barn. All Livestock Exhibitors are required to participate work days during the Fair. Exhibitor’s failure to participate in the mandatory work days will result in the exhibitor forfeiting the opportunity to show the following year and a $150 fine of which will be deducted from any premiums and/or sale proceeds.
24. Exhibitor Competition and Show Attire – Exhibitors shall wear dark black pants with white long-sleeved, button front shirts and leather boots during any and all competitions and shows. Official 4-H or FFA jackets may be worn. No BLING on jeans, shirt or jacket permitted. Prior to each exhibitor entering a show, an inspection will be conducted of the exhibitor’s attire. Exhibitors are not permitted to wear open-toe shoes in the barn areas while cleaning pens, feeding, and/or grooming their animals. Crocs are NOT permitted to be worn.
25. Prohibited in Barns - No Alcohol, Smoking or Vaping, food, drinks, or overnight sleeping is allowed in any barn. Profanity, rudeness and disrespect will not be tolerated. Any violations found may be deemed appropriate for removal of exhibitor from the Fair. This means everyone!
26. Club Signs - Club signs are not to exceed 21” X 21”. All other signs must be 8½” X 11” and be provided or approved by the respective Barn Chairperson.
27. Judging - Judging will be done on the Danish System. The policies of selecting judges and determining judging systems rest with the management. All persons making entries accept these judges and agree to abide by their decisions. Judges must not award premiums to any animal or exhibit because of its mere presence. It must be individually worthy. When there is only one exhibitor and no competition in a class, the judge shall award either first, second, third, or no premium in accordance with the merits of the animal or exhibit. Exhibitors and parents are prohibited from speaking to judges during judging.
28. Premiums, Ribbons and Awards - Premiums are paid on the basis of the judging reports, which must be signed by the judge and the Livestock Coordinator. All ribbons and awards must be displayed at all times. Failure to comply could result in loss of premiums.
29. SKILL-A-THON – MANDATORY PARTICIPATION FOR ALL EXHIBITORS - The Skill-a-thon is a series of “hands on” stations where exhibitors are asked to perform specific tasks and answer questions testing their knowledge of their project animal. The respective Skill-a-thon study guide can be downloaded at www.swflcfair.com, under the 4H tab. Skill-a-thons for Rabbit/Cavy will be Monday, March 2nd; Goats, Horses, and Poultry Animals well be Tuesday, March 3rd; and Market Animals are held Wednesday, March 4th. 4. Swine must weigh a minimum of 225 pounds at final weigh-in, with no maximum weight. Swine will not be sold for more than 300 pounds. There are 118 feeding days from first weigh-in to final weigh-in.
5. At the first weigh-in, all swine will receive an ear tag. In the event ear tag should be removed or become illegible, the Swine Chairperson must be contacted immediately (livestockquestions@leeciviccenter.com). No swine will be accepted at final weigh-in without the ear tag. This rule follows USDA Guidelines.
6. Swine Exhibitors are required to bring three letters to the first weigh-in inviting potential buyers to the show and livestock sale. Letters are to be neatly hand-written or typed and accompanied with addressed envelopes with postage attached. It is at the discretion of the Livestock Committee to reject letters which the committee deems unacceptable due to content, spelling, poor grammar or neatness. In this case, the exhibitor will be responsible to produce replacement letters.
7. Hair on the swine shall be no shorter than 5/8 of an inch. All major clipping of swine shall be done prior to entry to fair. Shaved animals will be disqualified and sent home. No Clippers allowed at the Fair.
8. Upon entry to the Fair, it is the exhibitor’s responsibility to do all grooming. One parent may hold an animal for safety reasons, however the Exhibitor ONLY may groom the animal.
9. Additional requirements such as Skill-a-thon, Record Books, Ask Me Booths, Show and Competition Attire, feeding/cleaning rules and times are all outlined in the General Rules and must be adhered to.

MARKET HOGS MUST COMPLY WITH FEDERAL REGULATION 9CFR.71.19. This regulation requires that all swine being shown at fairs or exhibitions (interstate commerce) must have official individual identification. Swine presented that do not meet the federal official individual identification requirements may not be allowed entrance into the fair.

SWINE SHOWMANSHIP RULES

1. All entries and awards are subject to following the General Rules, beginning on page 2.
2. Swine exhibitors are eligible for showmanship only. See the Livestock Department Date and Deadline for times of the Showmanship Show.
3. Showmanship age divisions are outlined in the General Rules.
4. Exhibitor can only show his/her animal.
5. In general, the showmanship contest will be judged on the following basis:
 - a) The ability of the exhibitor to lead, pose and generally handle his/her animal - or another exhibitor's animal, if indicated by the contest judge.
 - b) The exhibitor's attention to the ring stewards and the contest judge.
 - c) The exhibitor's knowledge of proper handling procedures in the show rings demonstrated by his/her actions.
 - d) Other areas as deemed necessary by the contest judge to determine the winners.
6. All exhibitors are required to groom their own animal. Failure to comply will result in disqualification from the grooming competition.
7. Use of electric clippers on Swine is prohibited during the Fair. Major clippings must be done prior to the arrival at the Fair.
8. Exhibitors having signed up for Showmanship may withdraw by final check-in. Failure to participate in Showmanship, with the exception of an approved withdraw; will result in a fine of $100.00 which will be contributed to the Exhibitor Fund. Exhibitors only are permitted in the staging area.

- 3rd Place – Trophy, White Ribbon, $15

MARKET ANIMAL AUCTION – Saturday, March 7th 2:00 pm

1. The Sale is open to the public and all animals are sold to the highest bidder. All Buyers must be pre-registered and sale order is determined by the Livestock Committee.
2. All animals competing in the Steer and Swine Shows must be sold and delivered to slaughter. There is no live animal pick-up. Animals will be delivered to slaughter by the designated Fair Management only. There are no exceptions.
3. Exhibitor's may be assessed up to $50.00 to pay for photographs, plaques, buyer's barbeque, and advertising. Any assessment will be taken from the Exhibitor's sale proceeds, in addition to any funds as a result of not selling the required ads.
4. Exhibitors are encouraged to solicit a sponsor on his/her behalf. The exhibitor may provide a sponsor board above the pen. Boards should be 8½" X 11" with just the sponsor's name. There is a limit of 1 board per exhibitor. Sponsors are not required and the Fair Association or Livestock Committee will not be responsible for the tracking of the sponsorships. This relationship is between the exhibitor & sponsor only.
5. Two photographs per exhibitor will be provided for Buyer's Plaques. Each exhibitor will be responsible for purchasing additional plaques and photographs in the case of multiple buyers. Plaques and pictures will be for the first sale only.
6. Buyer plaques must be delivered by the exhibitor within 60 days of the sale. The Receipt of Plaque Form must be signed by the buyer or an authorized designee of the buyer. Fred's Award World must receive the plaque order from the exhibitor no later than April 9, 2020. The "Receipt of Plaque" must be turned in to the Fair Office no later than May 8, 2020. Failure to deliver the plaque and turn in the "Receipt of Plaque" Form by the designated date will result in a 10% deduction from the exhibitor's sale proceeds and will eliminate the exhibitor from showing the following year. This 10% will be contributed to the Youth Scholarship Fund. Exhibitors will receive a list requirements for closing out the Fair year, to include a list of names they are required to write thank you letters to. This will be provided at the time the exhibitor receives their check from the sale.
7. Exhibitors will receive their funds from the sale only after Buyer's Plaque Form has been received by the Fair Office and after the buyer has paid the Fair Association for the animal. The Receipt of Plaque Form will serve as notification to the Fair Management that the exhibitor has met his/her obligation and is ready to receive his/her check, upon determination that the Buyer has paid for the animal. There are occasional times where the buyer is not timely in their payment.
8. Receipt of Plaque forms may be emailed, hand-delivered, or mailed by USPS. Metered mail will NOT be accepted where deadlines are concerned. Forms mailed by standard mail are done so at your own risk. Emailed ROP forms should be emailed to fcrone@leeciviccenter.com. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to follow up and ensure that the document has been received by the Fair Office. The Fair Association assumes no responsibility for documents not being received.
9. Proceeds from the sale of donated animals will be designated by the donor to the following approved program(s) only of the Southwest Florida & Lee County Fair: Livestock Area Improvement Fund, Livestock Fund, Fair Association Youth Scholarship Fund, Adam Barfield Youth Scholarship Fund, and 4-H Foundations or FFA Chapters representative of the designated six counties.
10. 'Buyer Gifts' are the responsibility of the exhibitor and are not to be distributed during the Sale. Gifts may be delivered in conjunction with the Buyer's Plaque, however, a 'Buyer's Gift' is not required.

- All entries and awards are subject to following the General Rules, beginning on page 2.
- All entries for Speed and Performance Shows must be included when registering online. There are no additional registration fees for competitions or shows. Walk-Trot classes are for non-cantering riders only. Walk-Trot riders cannot ride in any other classes other than Walk-Trot.
- Approved safety helmets are required in all events, including halter, showmanship, and in-hand classes. Helmets must be worn at all times when mounted.
- Horses competing are restricted to those owned by the exhibitor or sponsored by the owner of a horse. A Horse Lease must be in written form and cut off is January 1st of the current Fair year. Proof of Ownership and Sponsorship papers are available from the Lee County Extension Office.
- All horses must be in place at the close of check-in and remain in place until officially released. No horse(s) will be permitted to be brought in for just a specific event.
- The Horse Barn Chairperson will assign all stalls and shall have full authority to move or rearrange exhibits when, in his/her judgment, it becomes necessary.
- Horse stalls must show the name of the exhibitor, breed, age and sex of the horse. The horse registered for Fair is the only horse to be shown. "For Sale" signs are not permitted.
- It is mandatory that all exhibitors keep their stalls in clean and sanitary condition at all times during the Fair. All stalls and aisles are to be cleaned daily.
- Exhibitors are required to supply their own cleaning tools. Bedding will be provided at check-in, with refresher bedding supplied mid-week. Exhibitor may supply additional bedding at their own expense.
- It is mandatory that a halter and a lead rope, in good condition, be left at the horse's stall.
- Feed and water buckets must be secured to the stalls. No buckets are to be left on the stall floor. Each club is required to bring a 25 ft. or longer garden hose.

12. No horse is to be washed or clipped in the stalls, aisles or in front of the barns. Washing is to be done at the racks located at the North and South sides of the Horse Barn. Major grooming and clipping should be done prior to the Fair.
13. No horse is to be ridden on the Midway, on the paved area around any food concessions, or in the barns. Any exercising and lounging of horses is to be done in the outdoor horse ring with the gates closed. No horse is to be turned out into the ring and left unattended at any time. The exhibitor (and their immediate family), only, may ride while on the grounds.
14. Cribbing devices are mandatory.
15. Stall Guards are prohibited. Stall doors must be secured when horse is stalled.
16. Additional security will be added at the Exhibitor's expense and must be paid upon arrival to the Fair. Charge is $2 per animal, per day.
17. Additional requirements such as Skill-a-thon, Record Books, Ask Me Booths, Show and Competition Attire, feeding/cleaning rules and times are all outlined in the General Rules and must be adhered to.

ALL AROUND HORSEMEN AWARD

(All exhibitors must participate in the All Around Horsemen Award Contest)

The All Around Horsemen Award competition is a supplement to the current animal show ring premiums, and rewards exhibitors based on their participation in a wide variety of educational events. Points accrue in the areas of Demonstration; Project Book, Skill-a-thon, etc. Champion of Champion is awarded when an exhibitor receives both the Goat Herdsman and the Horse Horsemen's Award in the same year.

Each event will count for 100 points. Scores will be calculated as a percentage of points available (example: if score were 27 out of 30 available, point would be $27/30 = 90\%$, thus 90 points would be given.) Maximum points will equal 700 with bonus points awarded where indicated. The following events are required and will be included:

1. Skill-a-thon (calculated by points out of max per age division)	100 points
2. Project Book	100 points
3. Ask Me Booth	100 points
4. Demonstration	100 points
5. Poster (percentage out of 30 points)	100 points
6. Stalls (percentage out of 80 points)	100 points
7. Showmanship	100 points

100 points given for participating, additional points awarded for placing as follows:

1 st Place	-	60 points
2 nd Place	-	50 points
3 rd Place	-	40 points
4 th Place	-	30 points
5 th Place	-	20 points
6 th Place	-	10 points

TOTAL 700 points

DEMONSTRATION

Exhibitors must give a Pre-Fair Talk or Demonstration. This must be in the area of your project animal and be in conjunction with your project animal record book. Exhibitors must submit a script from the talk, a grade sheet from your demonstration, or a letter from your 4-H or FFA leader, and submitted with your project book at the animal check-in.

GOLDEN SHOVEL AWARD FOR EXHIBITION CARE AND MANAGEMENT

Animal pens will be judged on cleanliness of pen or stall, condition of water and feed buckets, and condition of animal (grooming, manure stains, etc.) Feeding must be done in a timely manner in accordance with the Fair scheduled feeding times. Failure to complete feeding duties within the allotted time will result in forfeit of points for that day. It also includes giving your animal adequate daily exercise. Exhibitors are expected to take full responsibility of the care of their animal and stall. Junior exhibitors may enlist some “hands-on” help of other exhibitors, parents, or 4-H/FFA leaders, if necessary. Senior exhibitors are expected to be responsible for all aspects of their animals care. Failure to comply will result in the disqualification from the Golden Shovel Award competition.

HORSE EDUCATIONAL POSTER

Participation is mandatory. 4-H and FFA exhibitors must turn in an Educational poster for judging. Posters must be on display by 9 am the Friday after check in. Posters must be done on a 20” X 30” foam board. The purpose of the poster is to help educate the public about your horse project. The required information is as follows, and must be clearly visible on the front of the poster: exhibitor’s name, age, and club name; horse’s name, age and breed. Optional information may include pictures, poems, ribbons or other articles. All items should be within the poster edges. The poster will be on display during the fair in the project animal area. Judging will be based on the following: Topic & Educational Value - 10 points, Originality and Creativity - 10 points, Quality of Work - 10 points, for a possible total of 30 points.

Posters must be removed during the scheduled release time. Posters where it is apparent that the work was done by parents or others will not be judged. Upon acceptance, all posters will be dated and initialed by the Barn Chairperson or their designee. Posters must be the work of the exhibitor.

HORSE FUN SHOW

Saturday, March 7th – 7:30 pm

The 4-H Fun Show is designed to give each 4-H/FFA club an opportunity to sponsor a horse show event that is fun for all ages. Since there are no premiums awarded, each 4-H/FFA club is also responsible for the prizes (1st - 5th) of their event. Classes may include (but not limited to) egg & spoon, whipped cream race, ride-a-buck, etc. Classes and prizes may vary yearly.

HORSE JUDGING CONTEST AND PREMIUMS

The 4-H/FFA Horse Judging event is designed to provide youth participants with the opportunity to develop skills in critical thinking, leadership, teamwork, evaluation, communications, and decision-making. This event is designed to give the participants an opportunity to: a) recognize good conformation (structural correctness, balance, and muscling), breed character, and performance ideals in different breeds of horses; b) select and evaluate horses based on knowledge and fact, make a decision, and then defend their decision through oral reasons; c) learn equine terms which can be used in a logical, systematic way to defend their placing and d) build self-confidence and self-reliance by learning to speak clearly, decisively and convincingly through the presentation or oral reasons.

This contest will include 2-3 halter classes, with a set of oral reasons on one or two classes; and 2-3 pleasure (performance) classes with possible oral reasons on one or two of them.

11. No Pinch Collars or training collars allowed.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

By Florida Law, OCVI is required! A State Veterinarian will be closely checking all animals! All Goats must be covered by an official health certificate issued by an accredited veterinarian certifying the animal to be free from symptoms of contagious or infectious diseases. The certified herd number shall be shown on the health certificate. The accredited herd number shall be shown on the health certificate. By Florida Law, all Dairy goats must be free of symptoms of all contagious and infectious disease (including caseous lymphadenitis or signs/symptoms of caseous lymphadenitis). Presenting unhealthy animals, subject to the ruling of the Southwest Florida Fair and/or the State Veterinarian, will result in the entire herd being disqualified from the show. The state veterinarian will be checking EVERY goat into the show. If an unhealthy goat is found, the entire group of animals with that goat will be disqualified from the show with no refund of entry fees.

All Goats must adhere to the following Scrapie's rules - Requirements for identification of Goats in Shows, Exhibitions and Fairs. All goats must have a Scrapie Tag Flock ID number.

Goats must be officially identified before coming with other groups of animals. For registered purebred Goats identified with an official breed registration certificate showing registration number, official permanent ID, Tattoo's or Electronic ID (microchip), official ear tags are not required.

However, upon presentation of such animal for exhibition, a copy of the breed registration certificate must accompany each animal. Regardless of the method of official identification, each animal must be associated with a premises identification number.

ALL AROUND HERDSMAN AWARD

Participation is mandatory. Points accrue in the following areas: Demonstration, Record Book, Skill-a-thon, Ask Me Booth, Educational Poster, Exhibit Care and Management, Showmanship, Entry Points, and Pre-Fair Educational Events. Failure to comply in any of these areas will disqualify the exhibitor from the All Around Herdsman Award and exhibiting at the Fair. Champion of Champion is awarded when an exhibitor receives both the Goat Herdsman and the Horse Horsemen's Award in the same year.

Each event will count for 100 points. Score will be calculated as a percentage of points available (example: if score were 27 out of a possible 30 available, points would be $27/30 = 90\%$, 90 points would be given). Maximum points will equal 960. The following events will be included:

- | | |
|--|------------|
| 1. Skill-a-thon (Calculated by points out of max per age division) | 100 points |
| 2. Record Book | 100 points |

1st Place: $75, Belt Buckle
2nd Place: $50
3rd Place: $25

DEMONSTRATION

Exhibitor must give a Pre-Fair Talk or Demonstration. This must be in the area of your project animal. Exhibitors must submit a grade sheet from your demonstration, or a letter from your 4-H/FFA leader stating the date and topic demonstrated. All must be signed by your 4-H or FFA leader and submitted with your project book at the animal check-in. A Demonstration is required in order to qualify for the All Around Herdsman Award and for entry into the Fair.

GOAT EDUCATIONAL POSTER

Participation is mandatory. 4-H and FFA exhibitors must turn in an Educational poster for judging. Posters must be turned in during animal check-in. Posters must be done on a 20" X 30" foam board. The purpose of the poster is to help educate the public about goats. The required information is as follows, and must be clearly visible on the front of the poster: exhibitor's name, age, and club name. All items should be within the poster edges. The poster will be on display during the fair in the project animal area. Judging will be based on the following: Topic & Educational Value - 10 points, Originality & Creativity - 10 points, Quality of Work - 10 points, for a possible total of 30 points. The poster must be removed during the scheduled release time. Posters where it is apparent that the work was done by parents or others will not be judged. Upon acceptance, all posters will be dated and initialed by the Barn Chairperson or their designee. Posters must be the work of the Exhibitor.

1st Place: Rosette
2nd Place: Ribbon
3rd Place: Ribbon

EXHIBITION CARE AND MANAGEMENT

Animal pens will be judged on cleanliness of pen or stall, condition of water and feed buckets, and condition of animal (grooming, manure stains, etc.). A maximum of 10 points will be awarded each day. Feeding must be done in a timely manner in accordance with fair scheduled feeding times. It also includes giving your animal adequate daily exercise. Exhibitors are expected to take full responsibility of the care of their animal and pen. Junior Exhibitors may enlist some "hands-on" help of other exhibitors if necessary. Intermediate and Senior exhibitors are expected to be responsible for all aspects of their animals care (no parents of INT or SR exhibitors can help or will forfeit herdsman points for that day). NO PARENTS OF 4H YOUTH WILL BE ALLOWED IN THE BARN DURING FEEDING TIME. Failure to comply will result in the disqualification from the All Around Herdsman Award.

SHOWMANSHIP – Wednesday, March 4th – 6:30 p.m.

In general, the contest will be judged on the following basis: a) the ability of the contestant to lead, pose, and generally handle his/her animal or other contestant's if indicated by the contest judge; b) the contestant's attention to the ring stewards and the contest judge; c) the contestant's knowledge of proper handling procedures in the show ring as demonstrated by his/her actions; d) other areas as deemed necessary by the contest judge to determine the winners. A contestant can only show his/her animal. Showmanship is required to compete for the All-Around Herdsman Award.

PARTICIPATION IN EDUCATIONAL FAIR EVENTS

Exhibitors should participate in a Livestock approved goat clinic before the fair. Participation in pre-fair events within their animal project area during the fair is required for the All-Around Herdsman Award. All 4-H Goat exhibitors should participate in at least one (1) Livestock approved GOAT CLINIC and in all required pre-fair Health & Conditioning screenings assigned by the Fair.
